

General Terms and Conditions of the Berliner Unterwelten e.V.

(January 31, 2019)

§ 1 Scope of Application

(1) The following General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter referred to as "GTC") apply to all legal relationships between the Berliner Unterwelten e.V. (herein after referred to as "BU e.V.")

Brunnenstraße 105
13355 Berlin

Office Telephone: (030) 49 91 05-17
Info Telephone: (030) 49 91 05-18
Fax: (030) 49 91 05-19
Email: buero[at]Berliner-unterwelten.de

Authorized representatives (board of directors):

The board of directors is composed of the chairman, Dietmar Arnold, and deputies, Andreas Körner and Jürgen Wedemeyer.

Register of association:

The BU e.V. was registered with the Berlin Charlottenburg Local Court in the register of associations on December 5, 1997, under the registration number 17912Nz. Place of jurisdiction is Berlin.

and our customers, i.e.:

- (a) the participants (hereinafter referred to as "Participants") in BU e.V. events (hereinafter referred to as "Events") and
- (b) the buyers of goods in our online shop at www.berliner-unterwelten.de (hereinafter referred to as "Buyers").

These GTC distinguish between the following kinds of Events:

- Events with individual Participants (e.g., public tours, special tours, exhibitions, and other Events);
- Seminars (in particular educational seminars) with individual Participants;
- Group Events (e.g., group tours, group seminars, guided group tours through exhibitions) with groups of Participants.

Special provisions may apply to Seminars, Group Events or orders in the online shop (this will be made clear in the respective provisions).

The GTC apply to all customers (e.g., consumers, businesspersons, merchants).

(2) All agreements between the customers and us can be found in these GTC, our offers (e.g., in the case of Group Events and Seminars), our confirmations and our acceptances. If entry tickets are bought through external providers, the general terms and conditions of such external providers may additionally apply; see § 2 (1).

(3) The GTC in the version effective at the time of the execution of the contract is the legally relevant version.

(4) Deviating terms and conditions of the customer shall not be accepted. This also applies even if we have not expressly objected to the applicability of such terms and conditions of the customer.

§ 2 Conclusion of contract

(1) Events with single Participants (this does not apply to Group Events and Seminars; for such events, see the following sections):

The contract with single Participants for Events is concluded through the sale of an entry ticket.

Entry tickets can be bought at our public ticket counters (in particular our ticket pavilion at Brunnenstraße 105, 13355 Berlin) or for special events through online platforms, such as www.reservix.de. If the customer buys entry tickets through external providers, such as www.reservix.de, in addition to our GTC the general terms and conditions of the external providers may apply (such general terms and conditions will be made available to the customer at the time of conclusion of the contract by the external provider).

Entry tickets are only valid for the event, date, and time specified on the ticket.

(2) Group Events:

The presentation of group events on our website does not constitute a legally binding offer for the conclusion of a contract.

The contract with the Participant for Group Events shall be concluded in writing as follows:

Interested Participants may send us an inquiry for a Group Event through the respective online contact form on our website. This inquiry is not legally binding and does not constitute a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for a Group Event.

After filling out the online contact form, the interested party will click on the button "Check entries". After clicking on this button, the interested party will be led to a page with an overview of his/her entries and has the chance to check his/her entries. At the end of the page, the interested party may choose between the button "Back to form" in order to make corrections, or the button "Confirm", in order to send the online contact form to us.

We will confirm the receipt of the online contact form immediately by email. Such email does not constitute a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for the Group Event, unless such offer is expressly declared in the email in addition to the confirmation of the receipt. If such an offer is not made, we will send a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for a Group Event to the interested party in a separate email (in exceptional cases also by regular mail).

Alternatively, interested Participants may contact us by telephone, email, fax, regular mail, or personally with respect to a Group Event. On request, we will send the interested party a written offer.

In order to accept the offer, the interested party shall sign the offer and send it back to us. After receipt of the signed offer, the contract with the signing Participant is concluded.

If a contract for the Participants is to be concluded on behalf of a group of Participants, this must be made clear when the inquiry is made; the group must be clearly identified (name, legal form, address, in the case of partnerships with the names and addresses of all members). The acceptance of the offer has to be signed on behalf of and with a valid power of attorney for the group by the legally authorized representatives of the group.

In general, our offers for Group Events are binding for us for the acceptance period stated in the offer. If no acceptance period is stated in the offer, our offers are binding for an acceptance period of 30 days after the offer is made (the date of the offer is relevant). We must receive the acceptance of the Participant within this acceptance period.

The contract with the Participant is only valid for the event, date, and time specified in our offer.

We will send the invoice for the participation fee to the representatives of the group after the conclusion of the contract. With respect to the payment conditions, see § 3 (2).

(3) Seminars:

The presentation of Seminars on our website does not constitute a legally binding offer for the conclusion of a contract.

The contract with the Participant for Seminars shall be concluded in writing as follows:

Interested Participants may send us an inquiry for a Seminar through the respective online contact form on our website. This inquiry is not legally binding and does not constitute a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for a Seminar.

After filling out the online contact form, the interested party will click on the button "Check entries". After clicking on this button, the interested party will be led to a page with an overview of his/her entries and has the chance to check his/her entries. At the end of the page, the interested party may choose between the button "Back to form" in order to make corrections, or the button "Confirm", in order to send the online contact form to us.

We will confirm the receipt of the online contact form immediately by email. Such email does not constitute a binding offer for the conclusion of a contract for the Seminar, unless such offer is expressly declared in the email in addition to the confirmation of the receipt. If such an offer is not made, we will send a binding offer the conclusion of a contract for a Seminar to the interested party in a separate email (in exceptional cases also by regular mail).

In order to accept the offer, the interested party shall send it back to us (by email, fax, or regular mail). After we have received the offer, the contract with the Participant is concluded.

In a few cases, changes to the offer may be made in consultation with the Participant. In such a case, we will send a new offer (which may also be titled "registration confirmation") to the Participant with the changes, which the Participant shall accept by email or regular mail. Only after such acceptance is the contract for the participation in the Seminar with the changes concluded.

The contract for the participation is only valid for the event, date, and time specified in our offer.

In general, our offers for Events are binding for us for the acceptance periods stated in the offers. In the case that no acceptance period is set in the offer, our offers are binding for an acceptance period of 30 days after the offer is made (the date of the offer is relevant). We must receive the acceptance of the Participant within such acceptance period.

The Participant shall receive the invoice for the participation fee after conclusion of the contract. With respect to the payment conditions, see § 3 (3).

(4) Orders from the online shop:

The presentation and promotion of goods in our online shop does not constitute a binding offer for the conclusion of a sales contract. By clicking on the button "In den Warenkorb", you can place the respective goods in the virtual shopping cart. This procedure is not binding and does not constitute an offer for the conclusion of the contract.

Before the customer submits the order, the content of the order including all of the customers's data will be summarized on an overview page. You can correct your data (e.g., address, invoice information, payment method) by clicking on the respective buttons (on the wheel) on the overview page. You can correct the order in the shopping cart (e.g., article or amount) by clicking on the button "Bestelldaten im Warenkorb ändern" (all other data remains unchanged).

By submitting an order to the online shop by clicking on the button "zahlungspflichtig bestellen", you place a legally binding order. Your right to cancel the order according to § 10 below, if any, remains unaffected.

We will confirm the receipt of your order from the online shop immediately by email. Such email does not constitute a binding acceptance of your order, unless such binding acceptance shall be declared in addition to the confirmation of the receipt. The contract will only be concluded if we declare the acceptance of your order or if we deliver the ordered goods.

Should the delivery of the goods you have ordered not be possible, for instance, if the goods are not in stock, we will not declare the acceptance of your order. In such a case, a contract will not be concluded. We will immediately inform you about these circumstances and will immediately reimburse you for all payments made.

(5) Correctness of your entries (applies to all contracts):

You guarantee that all entries [e.g., name, address, email address, bank information, invoice information, necessary information for groups, see § 2 (2)] made during your order or registration for goods in the online shop or the registration of Events are accurate and correct. You must inform us of any changes immediately.

If you request a correction of an invoice because of an incorrect entry of yours, we will charge a flat fee of 5.00 EUR per correction of an invoice. However, you remain entitled to prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the flat fee.

(6) Contractual language (applies to all contracts):

The contractual language shall be exclusively German and English.

(7) Providing of the GTC (applies to all contracts):

(a) If you contact us through our website (e.g., through an online contact form) or if you place an order in the online shop, you can save, download, or print these GTC at any time (see the information at the end of the GTC). If you place an order in the online shop, the text of the contract will be saved after conclusion of the contract and available to you. If you place an order in the online shop, you can save or print out the content of your order immediately after placing the order and get access to it later at any time through the function "mein Konto".

(b) For all distance contracts with consumers, the following applies:

In the case of distance contracts with consumers, we will provide a confirmation of the contract (containing the content of the contract) including these GTC within a reasonable period of time after conclusion of the contract, but not later than the delivery of the goods or the beginning of the services, on a durable data carrier (email or regular mail).

Distance contracts with consumers are all contracts according to § 312 e BGB (German Civil Code) using exclusively distant communication means (such as email, telephone, fax, regular mail, online shop) for contract negotiations and the conclusion of the contract, unless such conclusion of contract is not made within the framework of a distribution or service system set up for distance contracts.

A consumer according to § 13 BGB is any natural person who concludes a legal transaction for a purpose that cannot be predominantly attributed to his/her commercial or self-employed professional activity.

(c) If the customer buys entry tickets personally at our ticket counters, the GTC are available to be read there, too.

§ 3 Payment method, offset of claims, withholding rights

(1) Events with individual Participants (does not apply to Group Events and Seminars; see following sections):

The payment of entry tickets for individual Participants at Events can be made personally at our local ticket counters (in particular our ticket pavilion at Brunnenstraße 105, 13355 Berlin) in cash or, if the technical requirements are met, with an EC/Maestro card or credit card. If Participants buy tickets through external providers, such as www.reservix.de, the payment methods of those providers shall apply.

(2) Group Events:

The participation fee for Group Events must be paid either in advance at least two weeks prior to the Event per wire transfer, or after the Event in cash to the respective tour guide, or within eight days after receipt of an invoice per wire transfer to the BU e.V. Payment by invoice is only possible for billing addresses inside the Federal Republic of Germany. Payment via direct debit mandate or EC/Maestro card or credit card is not possible.

(3) Seminars:

Individual Participants in Seminars must pay the participation fee at least two weeks before the start of the seminar to the specified bank account of the BU e.V. per wire transfer. Payment via direct debit mandate or EC/Maestro card or credit card is not possible.

(4) Orders from the online shop:

The purchase price and the shipping costs for orders from the online shop must be paid to the bank account specified in the online shop (in advance or after receipt of an invoice).

(5) Offset of claims (applies to all contracts):

You are not entitled to offset claims against our claims, unless your counter claims are legally established or undisputed by us. However, you are entitled to offset claims in the case of a notice of defects or counter claims resulting from the same contract.

(6) Withholding rights (applies to all contracts):

You are only entitled to claim withholding rights if your counter claim arises from the same contract.

§ 4 Conditions of participation and rules of conduct (applies to all events)

(1) The BU e.V. tours, Seminars, exhibitions and Events are generally not accessible to disabled guests. Smoking is prohibited. Guests are prohibited from bringing animals with them. Photography and filming are forbidden in facilities for which the BU e.V. is responsible. Large bags and backpacks as well as bulky or sharp-edged objects are not permitted. Luggage storage is not provided. The instructions of BU e.V. personnel are to be followed at all times.

(2) For some Events there are age restrictions, or it is specified that minors must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. For some Events there are certain clothing and/or equipment requirements. Details are available in the flyers and/or on the BU e.V. website and/or in the registration confirmation and/or during the safety and security briefing.

(3) At the beginning of each Event there will be a safety briefing for the Participants. If a Participant misses this safety briefing, the Participant will not be permitted to enter later. Participation fees already paid will not be refunded. However, the Participant may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

§ 5 Exclusion of Participants (applies to all Events)

Participants who are visibly intoxicated, who disrupt the flow of a tour or other events, who endanger themselves or other persons, who do not follow the instructions of the BU e.V. personnel or the conditions of participation and rules of conduct (see § 4), who, where relevant, do not accept the safety briefing or refuse to sign a waiver of liability or disclaimer [see § 15 (2)], can be refused entry or continued participation or permission to stay in the BU e.V. facilities by the guide or supervisory staff of the BU e.V.

The participation fee will not be refunded to the excluded Participant. However, the Participants may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

§ 6 Withdrawal from the contract by BU e.V. (applies to all Events)

(1) Where it is impossible or extremely difficult to execute an Event as a result of circumstances beyond the control of the BU e.V. (e.g., force majeure, sickness, public transport strike, unavoidable maintenance or safety measures), the BU e.V. has the right to withdraw from the contract.

Additionally, we have the right to withdraw from the contract if the minimum number of Participants in public Events (excluding seminars) of five persons and Seminars of seven persons is not reached.

Furthermore, we reserve the right to cancel Events if the safety of the Participants cannot be guaranteed.

We are obligated to execute our right of withdrawal according to § 6 (1) as soon as possible.

Participation fees that have already been paid by the Participants will be immediately refunded.

(2) We furthermore have the right to withdraw from the contract if we come to the conclusion that Participants present at an Event are significantly disrupting or hindering the execution of an Event, are a danger to the general safety of the Event, are making statements or actions in violation of the German constitution or using unconstitutional symbols.

Participation fees that have been paid will not be refunded. However, the Participants may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

§ 7 Cancellation of Group Events and Seminars by Participants

Participants may withdraw from agreed Group Events [see § 2 (2)] and Seminars [see § 2 (3)] without giving a reason up to seven days before the Event without incurring a cancellation fee.

If the cancellation is made more than 24 hours in advance of the Event, 30% of the participation fee will be charged as a cancellation fee.

If the cancellation is made within 24 hours of the Event, 80% of the participation fee will be charged as a cancellation fee.

If a group or a Participant does not appear at all to an Event agreed upon without having cancelled the Event, we will charge 100% of the agreed participation fee.

However, the Participants may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

The aforementioned rights of withdrawal or cancellation do not apply to contracts with individual Participants in other Events [see § 2 (1)].

§ 8 Changes in the number of Participants at Group Events

With respect to Group Events, changes to the registered and booked number of Participants must be communicated to the BU e.V. not later than the day before the Event by 4:00 p.m. (the date and time the BU e.V. receives the information is relevant) in writing (regular mail) or per email and must be confirmed by us.

If we did not receive such information in time and the number of Participants was reduced, we will charge for the registered and confirmed Participants (and the tours planned). Example: If the number of Participants for a specific tour is limited to 30 persons and the customer registers and books for 35 Participants, we will provide for two tours and the personnel necessary for two tours. Should only 25 Participants show up at the agreed time (without prior timely information received by the BU e.V. about such reduction), the second tour will be cancelled; however, such second tour will be charged to the customer. However, the Participants may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

If the number of Participants showing up to an Event is increased without prior information to and confirmation by the BU e.V., we reserve the right to exclude the Participants in excess of the agreed upon amount from the Event if the maximum group size has been reached and sufficient personnel is not available.

§ 9 Late arrival of Participants in Group Events

We request that Participants appear in time for reserved Events (at least 15 minutes prior to the beginning of the Event). Should Participants arrive late at the contractually agreed meeting point and starting time of the Event, they are in default.

In case of such late arrival, we are entitled to shorten the duration of the tour without compensation by the amount of time that the start of the tour was delayed.

Where the Participants are more than 15 minutes late, they will generally lose their right to the execution of the Event because the following time slots will usually be occupied by the next visitor group. In this case, we have the right to receive the agreed price for the event. However, the Participants may prove that no damage has been caused or that the damage is significantly lower than the participation fee.

§ 10 Right of cancellation (applies to all contracts)

(1) If you are a consumer you have the right of cancellation according to the statutory regulations. With respect to the definition of "consumer" see § 2 (7) (b).

(2) If you exercise your right of cancellation as a consumer according to § 10 (1) in the case of ordering goods, you will have to pay the regular costs of returning such goods.

(3) The right of revocation does not apply or may prematurely terminate in the case of the following contracts:

- (a) Contracts for the rendering of services in connection with leisure time activities if the contract provides for the rendering of services on a specific date or period (this exception does not apply to contracts on travel services according to § 651 a BGB/German Civil Code, if such contracts were concluded outside of an office, unless the oral negotiations, on which the conclusion of the contract is based, were made at the prior request of the customer). This means: If we offer services in connection with leisure time activities, in particular entry tickets to Events or offers for the participation in Events on specific dates or time periods, you have no right of cancellation. The purchase and the ordering of entry tickets and the acceptance of our offers for Events are therefore binding for you.
- (b) Contracts for the delivery of sealed audio or video recordings or software if unsealed by you after delivery;
- (c) Contracts for the delivery of goods made to customers' specifications or clearly customized to personal needs or that are not suitable for return or can deteriorate or expire rapidly;
- (d) Contracts for the delivery of newspapers, journals, or magazines with the exception of subscription contracts for the supply of such publications.

(4) Notwithstanding the above, the following provisions apply for the right of cancellation:

- Beginning of the instructions on the right of cancellation -

Right of cancellation

You have the right to cancel your order without giving any reason within 14 days.

The cancellation period is 14 days beginning with the day on which you or a third party indicated by you (other than the carrier) receives the goods purchased, or, in the case of services, from the day of the conclusion of the contract.

In order to exercise your right of cancellation, you must inform us [Berliner Unterwelten e.V., Brunnenstraße 105, 13355 Berlin, tel.: (030) 499 105 17, fax: (030) 499 105 19, email: buero[at]berliner-unterwelten.de] with a clear declaration (e.g., by regular mail, fax, or email) about your decision to cancel the contract. You may use the attached sample form of revocation; however, such use is not required. You can download the sample form of revocation from our website www.berliner-unterwelten.de/en/right-of-cancellation, fill it out, and submit it to us.

To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient that you inform us that you are exercising your right of cancellation before the cancellation period has expired.

Consequences of cancellation

If you cancel this contract, we will reimburse you for all payments received from you, including shipping costs (except any additional costs that are the result of your request to us to use a shipping method other than the cheaper shipping method we offer), immediately and not later than 14 days from the day on which we received your information about the cancellation of this contract. For such reimbursement we will use the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise. In no case will we charge any fees as a result of such reimbursement.

- In the case of purchase agreements (sale of goods) the following applies: We can refuse the reimbursement until we have received the goods returned to us or until you can prove that you have returned the goods, whichever is earlier.

You must send back the goods or give back the goods immediately and, in any case, not later than 14 days after the day on which you informed us about your cancellation of the contract. This deadline is met if you send the goods before the period of 14 days has expired.

You must bear the direct costs of sending the goods back to us.

You will only have to pay compensation for any deterioration of the goods if the value of the goods has diminished due to your handling of the goods (except what was necessary to establish the nature, characteristics, and functioning of the goods).

- In the case of services, the following applies: If you requested from us that we begin the services during the cancellation period, you must pay us a reasonable amount based on the proportion of our services rendered before the moment you informed us about your exercise of the cancellation right of this contract in comparison to the total scope of the services provided for in the contract.

§ 11 Regulations on delivery and reservation of advance payment for orders in the online shop

(1) We are entitled to partial deliveries if reasonable for the customer.

(2) The delivery period for goods is 5 (five) working days unless agreed otherwise. The period begins – subject to the provision in § 11 (3) – with conclusion of contract.

(3) With respect to orders from customers with a place of residence or office outside of Germany or in the case of justified indications of a risk of default we reserve the right to deliver only after receipt of the sales price including shipping costs (reservation of advance payment). If we exercise our right to reservation of advance payment, we will inform you immediately. In this case, the delivery period begins with the payment of the sales price and the shipping costs.

§ 12 Prices and shipping costs (applies to all contracts)

(1) All prices quoted on our website for goods and services and other promotional material are inclusive prices including any applicable value added tax (VAT), but exclusive of delivery costs.

(2) The delivery costs for orders in the online shop are clearly communicated on our website. The price including VAT and applicable delivery costs will furthermore be shown on the order page before the customer sends the order.

(3) If we fulfill your order in the online shop according to § 11 (1) by partial delivery, you only have to pay shipping costs for the first partial delivery. However, if we make partial deliveries at your request, we will charge you for shipping costs for every partial delivery.

(4) If you cancel your contract for orders in the online shop with legal effect according to § 10, you have the right – in line with the legal requirements – to ask for the reimbursement of any shipping costs for the shipping from us to you already paid by you [with respect to further consequences of a cancellation, see § 10 (3)].

§ 13 Retention of property title (applies to all contracts)

We retain the property title to all delivered goods until they have been paid for in full.

§ 14 Warranties (applies to all contracts)

(1) We are liable for any legal defects or material defects according to the statutory provisions, in particular §§ 434ff. BGB/German Civil Code. The statute of limitations for statutory warranty rights is two years and begins with the delivery of the goods.

(2) Apart from this, further seller warranties for specific goods or manufacturer warranties given by manufacturers for specific goods can apply in addition to legal or material defects according to § 14 (1). Details with respect to the scope of such warranties are described in the warranty regulations enclosed with the goods (if any).

§ 15 Limitation of liability of BU e.V., non-liability in individual cases (applies to all contracts)

(1) In general:

- (a) We are liable without limitation for intent and gross negligence.
- (b) In the case of simple negligence, we are only liable – except in the case of death or injuries to the body or health – if we violated material obligations, the performance of which is of material importance to the achievement of the purpose of the contract (cardinal obligations). The liability is limited to damages which are typical for the contract and foreseeable.
- (c) The liability for indirect and unforeseeable damages, loss of production or usage, loss of profit, loss of savings, and financial losses due to claims of third parties are excluded in the case of simple negligence – with the exception of death or injuries to the body or health
- (d) Any liability in excess of the liability provided for in this contract is – regardless of the legal nature of the claim – excluded. Such limitations of liability or exclusions of liability do not apply to any mandatory legal liability regardless of culpability (e.g., according to the product liability statute) or the liability resulting from a warranty regardless of culpability.
- (e) To the extent that the liability according to § 15 (1) (b) and § 15 (1) (c) is excluded or limited, this also applies to the personal liability of our employees, representatives, organs, or performing agents.

(2) In individual cases the owner or possessor of a facility may ask for a waiver of liability or an exclusion of liability as a requirement for the entry to the facility. In such cases, the Participant must declare such a waiver of liability or agree on such an exclusion of liability with the owner or possessor of the facility. We may hand out the respective form to the Participant for signature. Such waiver of liability or exclusion of liability only affects the relationship between the owner/possessor and the Participant. With respect to the legal relationship between us and the Participant, the limitation of liability provided for in § 15 (1) applies.

§ 16 Copyrights (applies to all contracts)

We own the copyrights to all pictures, films, and texts published in our online shop, promotion and information materials, and other media. Any use of such pictures, films, or texts is prohibited unless our express prior written approval has been given.

§ 17 Data protection (applies to all contracts)

We process personal data of the customers according to the applicable data protection laws. The data will be, if necessary, collected by automatic means, processed, and used. We collect and store the data necessary for the execution of the transaction with the customer. When processing the customer's personal data, we adhere to the legal requirements. More details are given in our data protection declaration available on our website www.berliner-unterwelten.de/en/data-protection; the data protection declaration is also attached to our GTC, which are available at the ticket counters. The data will only be transmitted to third parties in the cases regulated in this declaration. We will give the customer information about the data stored on him/her on request at any time.

§ 18 Severability clause (applies to all contracts)

(1) Should a provision in this GTC be or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the other provisions. The provisions that are invalid or not included in these GTC shall be replaced by the legal provisions (§ 306 Sec. 2 BGB/German Legal Code).

(2) If such legal statutes should not be available in the respective case or lead to an intolerable result, the parties will enter into negotiations on a valid provision that comes economically close to the provision that is invalid or not part of this GTC.

§ 19 Applicable law and jurisdiction, online dispute resolution (applies to all contracts)

(1) This contract is governed by German Law; UN Sales Law (CISG) is excluded. If you ordered as a consumer and had your ordinary residence in a country outside of Germany at the time you made your order, the applicability of mandatory legal provisions of such country remain unaffected by the choice of law regulated in the previous sentence.

(2) If you are a merchant and you have your residence at the time of the order in Germany, exclusive jurisdiction shall be the residence of the BU e.V., Berlin. Apart from that, the applicable legal provisions for national and international jurisdiction shall apply.

(3) Dispute resolution: The EU Commission created an Internet platform for the online resolution of disputes. This platform can be used for out of court resolution of disputes with respect to contractual obligations resulting from online sales contracts. Further information is available under the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>. We are not willing or obligated to participate in such a dispute resolution procedure on such a consumer dispute resolution platform.
